

A Prosperous Country
Drivers and Walkers
Wry Industries Grow
Flying for Pasture

Uncle Sam continues to prosper, in spite of increasing expenses. In three months ending September 30 he collected more than one billion dollars, and $128,959,834 more than he collected in the same three months a year ago. It's a big, rich country, with one single city spending in a year as much as the United States used to spend before the war.

Bootleg whiskey, 'home brew' and automobile accidents are related. Drunken drivers kill many. Everybody knew that.

Now Doctor Norris, chief medical examiner of New York City, says that 'drunken walkers' cause accidents for which the automobile industry is blamed.

Doctor Norris urges that reckless walkers be fined and adds, 'Twenty-five per cent of adults hurt by automobiles are intoxicated.'

An observer of high finance says industry progresses rapidly 'because sons of very rich men play polo and golf, neglect business inherited from their fathers, and allow abler men to extend and develop the business.'

That is true in some cases. No Vanderbilt runs the New York Central railroad, no Ryan manages street car lines, no J. J. Hill descendant manages great railroads in the West. But it isn't true always.

For instance, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., not conspicuous on the golf course or polo field, runs successfully the biggest business in the world, turned over to him by his father, now past ninety.

And the American Tobacco company is run with an extraordinary success, to which its competitors will testify, by a very young man, George W. Hill who inherited the job from his father. Here and there young men inherit ability and ambition with great wealth but not often.

It is easy to succeed in spite of poverty. It is difficult to succeed in spite of wealth.

The Canadian government bought a herd of 3000 selected reindeer and will drive them from Kotzebue Sound in Arctic Alaska to the east side of the Mackenzie Delta in northwest Canada. Driving great herds to new pasture lands is old.

Ahead of Canada's reindeer an Alaska airways plane will fly, carrying officials of the Canadian government spying out the best pastures to which the reindeer may be driven. That is new.

Modern science is useful. Airplanes select pastures, prospect for gold, watch forest fires, carry medicine.

The X-ray is used in the purchase of mummies.

Professor Langmuir in the General Electric Research laboratory shows a life size X-ray of a mummy, taken through all its wrappings. The outer edges of the vertebrae, show indications of arthritis in those ancient days.

The Field Museum in Chicago will purchase no mummy until its genuineness has been demonstrated by X-rays showing the bony structure of the old Egyptian inside.

X-rays and other scientific processes are used in selecting merchandise of many kinds.

Thinking about evil, dreading it, is worse than evil. One man killed himself because he feared a duel arranged for next day. Another blew his brains out rather than walk to safety on a tree trunk stretched over a deep chasm.

Herman Linderman, New York gangster, strangled himself with his belt in prison. He had 'squealed' on his associates, had been stabbed once in prison and feared what would happen when he reached the penitentiary again.

He put $8.50 in the pocket of a criminal asleep in his cell with a note asking that it be divided with a friend. He wrote to that friend, 'Have a good feast on me, on my way to Hell.' Crime does not pay.

Germany mourns the loss of Stresemann, great and patriotic leader, who actually worked himself to death for Germany. Before he died he had the satisfaction of negotiating the evacuation of the Rhineland, thus restoring to Germany her territorial integrity.

The governor of North Carolina very intelligently thinks that in North Carolina wages should be made higher, hours shorter, in the textile industry.

He does not agree with the theory that human beings in the South should be treated like cattle in order to attract northern capital.

WADE IS DENIED BOND AFTER HEARING HERE

CHARGED WITH MURDER OF
WIFE CAMERON MAN RECOM-
MENDED AFTER HEARING

Eugene Wade, charged with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Oralee Wade in Cameron on the afternoon of September 30, 1929 was denied bond in the court of Justice J. M. Ralston here Wednesday afternoon after a hearing which was held on application of the defendant, the purpose of which was application for a bond.

At the conclusion of the hearing District Attorney Jack Lewis presented argument to show the defendant was not entitled to bond under the terms of the charge and testimony given. Justice Ralston denied the bond and Wade was given over to the keeping of Sheriff Blaylock and returned to the county jail to wait action of the grand jury which will meet in November. The question of an indictment will come up at the session of the grand jury.

Ten witnesses testified at the trial. Wade sat motionless and apparently undisturbed. He was taken to the county jail last week from the Cameron hospital where he was being treated for his wounds. After the shooting of Mrs. Wade he attempted to take his own life, it is said, and slashed his throat with a razor. In a low, well modulated voice he questioned some of the witnesses. He has no attorneys and conducted his own case before the court.

Dorris Wade, 14 year old daughter of the defendant, was the only witness to the shooting and her testimony was introduced by the state. She testified that on Sunday night before the fatal shooting on Monday that her father went to the bed room of her mother and drew a pistol. Wade questioned the daughter stating that he had no pistol and was clad in his night clothes. Dorris said in her testimony that Wade took the gun from his bosom and pointed it at her mother. The disturbance that night was alarming to the family she said. The next day she took her father to the Round Bale gin and sometime during the day her mother went to the home of her brother, Atwood Devers in Cameron. On the afternoon of September 30, about two o'clock Wade came to the home of Atwood Devers and asked for Mrs. Wade. Dorris met him at the door and said 'Daddy you must not shoot mama.' According to her testimony she followed him into the kitchen where Mrs. Wade was changing her clothes. She said Wade drew a pistol and pointed it at Mrs. Wade who came to him and they struggled with the gun. Dorris tried to interfere. The gun was discharged and Mrs. Wade was shot in the right thigh, severing an artery. Dorris testified that she was powder burned by the shot. Mrs. Wade ran from the home to the house of a neighbor and there fell. She was later taken to the hospital and died from loss of blood.

Mrs. Devers, mother of Mrs. Wade testified that she stayed at the Wade home on Sunday night. She was at the home of her son on the afternoon of the shooting but was in another room. After the shooting she testified she seized a stick and beat Wade. All of the family except Wade left the home and after they left Wade attempted to take his life.

Dr. M. C. Sapp testified as to the nature of the wounds that caused Mrs. Wade's death.

MURDER CASE IS SET

The case of State vs. Antonio and Monica Linarez, Mexicans, charged with the murder of Pilar Aguirre of Rockdale about August 4 was set for trial Monday, October 21.

What want to remain rich and prosperous, is coming to realize the importance of paying good wages and giving men reasonable leisure for the enjoyment of life. The prosperity of the few depends on the prosperity of the many. The safety of the few depends on the contentment of the many.

CITIZENS BANK IN FORMAL OPENING ON THURSDAY NIGHT, OCT. 24; MUSIC AND PROGRAM ARRANGED BY OFFICERS

Cameron's two million dollar bank—The Citizens National Bank, will hold a reception to the public on Thursday night, October 24, 1929 from 7 to 9:30 at which time the people are invited to attend and to see the new building.

Oxshier Smith, president and W. O. Newton, vice-president, are arranging a program of entertainment with the co-operation of the employees of the bank and the directors.

Music will be furnished by Guy Draper's orchestra. This orchestra is from Waco and well known over Texas. In addition to this part of the program refreshments will be served.

This will be the first opportunity the people have had to go behind the scenes in a big bank. Officers will be there to conduct the people through the various departments, showing the workings of a bank, the improved facilities and the methods by which their business is handled.

Every detail of the workings of this bank will be shown to the people and this feature alone will be worthwhile.

The electrical burglar alarm system said to be the finest anywhere in the United States, will be demonstrated to the public.

The officers and directors and employees of the bank are anxious for the people to attend this reception which will mark the formal opening of the new building, one of the best banking rooms in Texas.

The new building has been occupied by the bank and plans have been under way for more than two weeks for the reception to be held on next Thursday night.

Elsewhere in this edition will be found a highly interesting story describing the beauty and detail of this structure. This article was prepared by the architects and will be of interest to the people.

DAIRY MEETING WILL ENLIST THE FARMERS

COMMERCIAL CLUB TO HOLD
MEETING MONDAY NIGHT
OCTOBER 21

Increasing interest in dairying as a result of the establishment here of the plant of the American Milk Products Company is rapidly bringing about a balanced income for the farms.

Interest has increased with the sale of milk here through the cooling plant of the Borden Company of Waco and it is a source of great satisfaction to those who have stood by and encouraged the farmers.

The Commercial Club on last Monday night voted to give over the meeting on Monday night, October 21 to the discussion of dairying. Speakers will be present and the farmers are urged to attend.

P. C. Colgin, manager of the plant has taken an active interest in the work here as field man and believes the dairy business has come to stay in the county. 'The interest is fine said Mr. Colgin, 'and we expect to have a great showing in a few months toward a balanced income for the farm.'

J. C. Tucker said: 'It is really gratifying to note the interest that is being taken in the matter of selling milk here. We find that many are breaking away from their efforts at a one crop system and are interested in buying cows. We hope to be able to place a large number of better cows in this territory shortly.'

The meeting is important and the farmers who are interested are urged to attend this meeting.

J. Fannanek and Charles Tulka, youthful journalists from Prague, Cshoslovakia, were in Cameron Thursday afternoon on a tour of Texas as a part of their American trip. They came to the office of The Herald and exchanged greetings with the editor and told of their travels.

They are making a world tour and have been in many countries of the globe. When they return to their native land they will write a series of magazine articles for a well known periodical in that country and will probably syndicate their material.

The trip they are making involves about 72,000 miles and to date they have made about 42,000 miles. They are traveling by auto, train and on foot, seeing the countries and gathering material for their story. The customs in the various countries have been of great interest to the youthful journalists.

Pictures of three Cameron girls, Misses Dorothy Denson, Harriett Flinn and Dinks Baskin, appeared in papers over the state Sunday along with those of several other girls at Southwestern University who were appointed by Miss Laura Kuykendall dean of women at the University, to assist in entertaining at the annual Rainbow Dinner given shortly after the opening of the school term. Guests at the dinner were notables connected in various ways with the University.

When they have concluded their tour of America they will visit in Canada and Alaska before returning to Europe. While in this vicinity they were guests of the Sokol society in Buckholts for a lecture on their travels.

Some interesting experiences have been the portion of these young men. They have blistered in the desert heat of the tropics, met with bandits in Arabia and suffered in the cold of the higher countries, but they are undaunted in their quest for world travel.

They were accompanied to Cameron by L. J. Zajicek of Buckholts. The people of the Buckholts community enjoyed their lecture and it was a pleasure to have them as guests at this newspaper office for a few minutes.

COMMERCIAL CLUB IN INTERESTING MEETING

REPORT ON HIGHWAY MEET
MADE AND DAIRY MEETING
ANNOUNCED FOR MONDAY

President Jackson called the meeting to order at 7:45 p. m.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Roll call showed the following officers, directors and committee chairmen present: F. E. Jackson, J. D. Dobbins, W. M. Cobb, Geo. Gott, J. C. Tucker, W. R. Hoover, F. S. Lesovsky, Giles L. Avriett, F. J. Beckerman, George T. Graves, Ben F. Reichert, Rev. E. S. Hutcherson, M. G. Manning, P. C. Colgin, W. J. Watson, W. H. Shipp and B. T. Harris.

Mr. Cobb reported the trip to Victoria in interest of the proposed new highway and on motion duly made and carried the secretary was instructed to write H. C. Meyer of Rockdale, newly elected president of the North and South highway association, felicitating upon his election and promising him the hearty support of the Cameron Commercial Club.

P. C. Colgin announced that the Calvert Chamber of Commerce had recently been active in pledging acreage in tomatoes and peanuts in the Branchville neighborhood. This report was referred to the agricultural committee for its co-operation and the secretary was authorized to write Secretary Heath and offer the club's support in this campaign.

Messrs. Tucker and Graves spoke of the intense interest shown by Milam county farmers in the dairy development campaign and offered to fill the court room with farmers any night when dairy development will be stressed. After more discussion, next Monday night was set for a special dairy meeting and the Borden organization will be extended a special invitation to be present and sponsor a special program for the occasion.

Mr. Shipp reported that the P. C. Pennington Company of Sulphur Springs had taken over the Peter Produce plant and would continue to buy and dress turkeys and buy and ship poultry and pecans, as usual. He proposed the firm for membership in the club. The names of W. E. Gaither, P. C. McGregor, Edwin York and R. G. Grabiner were proposed by the Secretary. All were elected.

Mr. Hoover suggested that some of our leading business men were unwittingly discrediting Cameron by carrying on their cars, spare-tire covers with ads of Waco and Temple firms on them instead of Cameron firms. He thought that the mere mention of the fact would be sufficient to get them to take them off and substitute those from local firms.

Attention to the fact that the election of Mr. Cobb as Secretary left a vacancy on the board of directors. Mr. B. T. Harris was nominated and elected to this place.

Mr. Lesovsky moved that President Jackson be given the full support of the club in enforcing the rule which automatically removes directors and committee chairmen from office when they are absent for three consecutive meetings without satisfactory excuse.

Crowds

As a matter of fact, the congregating impulse in human nature isn't what it once was, and for readily discernible reasons. In what we call our modern "community life," most of us are forced to congregate whether we like it or not. People must, of necessity, spend so much time in crowds—in streets, stores, trains and highways—that they are naturally anxious to escape from the turmoil in their lives. —R. E. Sherwood, in South.

"Dragon's Blood" is the A-Z of the "Dragon's Blood" of commerce. It is a red gum made from the resin of palm trees growing in Spain and the Dutch East Indies. It is sold in the pharmacy and finds its way into the arm as a means for curing various and also for use in the treatment of it is secured from a plant by a process of steaming and boiling. The product is sent to China and Singapore and thence it is shipped all way around the world. —Plants in Europe and America.

Male Critic Severe on

Work of Women Poets

If an effort were made to determine what elements constitute feminine poetry, one would name first its chief characteristic—subjectivity. When a woman writes poetry her emotions generally center around herself and she is only interested in the world as something that reflects favorably or unfavorably on her own individuality. It is usually favorable and when unfavorable, wailingly agonized, writes Herbert G. Brunchen, in the North American Review.

As an artist it is rarely that a woman can translate her emotions objectively; in other words to comprehend the world and the human beings that are part of it, not as they touch herself, but as they affect the great lot of humanity.

Feminine poetry, moreover, when it is cheerful, is generally so in a superficial way; it is too often over-refined through an erroneous and typically feminine conception of the difference between refinement and truth. It is embroidery poetry, very apt to be sentimental and cloyingly sweet.

And only in rare instances does one find a poem written by a woman where the unpleasantness and even tragic truths of human relationships have not been carefully censored or glossed over.

Cultivate Serenity to Fight Mental Fatigue

Mental fatigue cuts down efficiency and spoils happiness. American life with its high-power speed for both work and play produces an unusual amount of mental fatigue. To aid in the cultivation of more serene habits, Dr. Lauren H. Smith, writing in Hygeia Magazine, makes the following suggestions:

1. When we work, let us keep our interest in it and make it pleasurable.

2. When we play, let us enter into it for all it is worth without regard for anything else.

3. When we rest and sleep, let us turn the mind and body loose to themselves and let them do what they will. Learn to rest the mind by leaving the mind alone.

4. When we think, let us make a decision and carry it out. If we decide incorrectly it can be reconsidered later.

5. When we are very tired, let us not permit a temporary or extreme emotional reaction to drive us into an act that will have permanent results.

Nation's Honey Production

In the United States the greater part of the honey produced is alfalfa honey from the western states, where several million dollars' worth is sold every year. Sweet clover, white sage and other mountain flowers, also contribute to the western supply. In the central states it is white clover, sweet clover, Spanish needle and heartsease honey. In the southern states, cotton mesquite, horse mint and sweet clover, and in the eastern states, northern states and Canada, buckwheat and white clover are the leading honey flowers. Orange blossoms, clover, aster and basswood complete the list.

Easy to Don Coat

Two men were chatting. "Why is it that Greeks and Italians can get into a coat easier than anyone else?" asked one. "I don't know," replied the careful one. "Did you ever notice the graceful overhead sweep of their arms as they slip on the coat with one complete motion?" queried the first speaker. The other admitted that he had noticed the phenomenon in question. "It's because their Roman and Grecian ancestors used that method in slipping on their togas and they haven't gotten over the idea," asserted Speaker No. 1.—Detroit News.

Ladies of Long Ago

The ladies to whom the troubadours sang had invariably hair of the color of flax, as soft as silk, and shimmering with a sheen of the finest gold. In ancient Spanish romances the hair is either of pure gold, or definitely fair. In ancient Germany, Gretchen had to have "fair hair, like gold; long, bright, and curly." There is a famous description of a French lady of the Thirteenth century. "Her hair had the brilliance of gold, and was twisted into rebellious curls"—so evidently permanent waving was known.

Tomahawk Not Indian

The tomahawk, which is sometimes considered a weapon peculiar to the American Indian, was originally a club carved into some convenient shape. It was most commonly a stout stick about three feet in length, terminating in a large knob, wherein a projecting piece of flint was often inserted. The hatchets of the Indians that are now called tomahawks are a European device and the stone hatchets so often found in our fields, called by the same term were not military weapons but mechanical tools.

Gas Freezes Fire

Carbon dioxide, which is expelled from your body whenever you exhale, has been put to use by the Los Angeles fire department to put out fire in which streams of water are of little use, as in chemical and oil fires. The gas is carried in high pressure cylinders and when released a cloud of dry ice like that used in certain kinds of refrigeration is squirted over the fire. This reduces the temperature and prevents oxygen from reaching the blaze, thus smothering it.

Is Writing New Tire History

HISTORY is made by those who create finer things, better things, more lasting things than have ever before been produced. The new Firestone Supreme Balloon is finer, larger, better, more rugged, more lasting than any tire that has ever before been offered to the American public—that is why it is writing new tire history. Here is a tire that will match your car, mile for mile, hour after hour with every sprint of the motor, every pressure of the brakes and every turn—over any and all kinds of roads, in all kinds of weather. It has appearance, quality, performance, dependability, safety and extra mileage; in fact, it has everything and more than the famous Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires that already hold all world records for speed, safety, economy and mileage. While its cost is higher, yet it is more economical because it brings you tire performance above and beyond anything the world has ever known. Come in today—you will like it the minute you see it. Liberal allowance made for your old tires.

It Lacks That

The story is told that one day a famous artist called in to criticize a picture that a younger artist had painted. The old artist looked at it a long time and finally, snapping his fingers, said, 'It lacks that.'

You have seen pictures like that. They seemed to lack something that could only be described by a snap of the fingers. They lacked something, you might not have known what it was, but you were conscious of the lack of something.

You have also seen printed matter like that. You were perhaps not able to say what was the matter with it except that it did not look right. It lacked the something that the artist tried to describe by snapping his fingers. It lacked the truth that only a true artist could have given it.

Our printing is produced by skilled printers. They put the art and personality of their genius into every piece of work that goes through this shop.

Phone us and we will call with samples and prices.

Ford Production In September Passes Previous Records

The Ford Motor Company today issued the following statement:

'Production of passenger cars and commercial cars during September, 1929, totalled 161,305 units, a heavy increase over production during the same months of the preceding year.

An increased production schedule has been set for October, calling for an output of 175,000 Model A cars and Model AA trucks. The program for October anticipates a gain of 47,000 units over the production of October 1928 when 127,225 units were produced.

Total Ford production for the first nine months of the current year aggregated 1,633,498 units. Advance schedules indicate that production of Model A cars and Model AA trucks for the full year will exceed 2,000,000 units.

The program adopted for October means that the Rouge Plant will continue on a full five-day schedule. Employment in the Ford plants remains at a high level, with 108,138 employees working in the three large plants of the Detroit area on October 2.

Neff Named Chairman Railroad Commission

Austin, Texas, Oct. 14.—Pat M. Neff of Waco, former governor, today was named chairman of the state railroad commission to succeed Clarence E. Gilmore, who died Thursday.

Neff is a former member of the U. S. board of railroad mediation. He was appointed by President Coolidge. He was governor for two terms, from January 1921 to January 1925. While the state's chief executive he appointed Dan Moody, now governor, as district attorney.

Governor Moody, who announced the appointment said Neff would assume his new duties as soon as practicable.

President Coolidge selected Neff for a second term on the mediation board but the senate had not confirmed the appointment when the Coolidge administration ended and former Governor O. B. Colquitt was chosen for the place by President Hoover.

Neff had been mentioned as a likely candidate for a third term as governor, especially if former United States Senator Earle B. Mayfield should enter the race. Mayfield bitterly opposed Neff's reappointment to the federal mediation body.

By Roy Baskin

The worst vegetable of which I know is spinach. By many people, especially by myself, it is associated with grass and weeds. One of the many reasons that makes me hate spinach is that I have to eat it. This makes it taste a great deal worse. To me there is no reason why spinach should be eaten or why it helps you. It is generally said by mothers that spinach is beneficial to your health. As far as I am concerned, though spinach should be listed as a medicine and not as a vegetable. The doctor who prescribes this 'awful-tasting medicine' for me is mother.

WHAT I THINK ABOUT CORN
By Earnest Sharpe

Corn reminds me so much of musical instruments. Some people make such a musical sound when eating it off the cob. Sometimes it is like a bass horn. It is tough and you fuss and cause trouble by disturbing everyone. Then too, often tender and sweet is it. College students like especially hot, 'hot' music served from the best of artists at this trade. Last comes the sad part; you want more but it is gone—gone to come back some other day. Did corn ever remind you of all these?

WHAT I THINK ABOUT ONIONS
By Giles Avriett

Onions are a very spicy seasoning. Equally good are they for meat salads and sauces, if used right. Onions are a very 'delicate vegetable' to tinker with, especially according to the nose. There are many ways to fix onions but the only way I like them is raw, but this is the worst way to eat them.

Are there many kinds of onions? Oh, yes. There are more than a few. They range from tiny multiplying onions that are best eaten raw to big brown onions that are very strong. The best kinds of onions for all-round purposes are the White Bermudas.

Best grown are onions in a light sandy soil with very little water. If there is too much water they will rot. Onions are nearly indispensable if used right, but if not they are offensive.

The fall political campaign at the University of Texas came to a climax Tuesday with the election of officers to the student's assembly. W. A. Morrison of Cameron was a candidate from the school of Education.

CHIROPODIST TELLS OF DEFECTS IN FEET

DR. J. R. HARRIS OF WACO WRITER OF A SERIES OF ARTICLES FOR CAMERON HERALD

Editor's Note—The following article was submitted to this paper by Dr. J. R. Harris of Waco, president of the Chiropractic Society of Texas. One purpose of the society is to enlighten and direct public opinion concerning all matters pertaining to chiropractic and in view of this fact Dr. Harris is writing a series of articles for The Herald. Next week he will discuss 'Walking and the Care of the Feet.'

Your first thought in building a home is to give it a firm and solid foundation, because you realize that upon this alone can it withstand the stress and strain of inevitable evils. If the foundation becomes weak you immediately repair it.

The feet are the foundation of health. Are you deliberately neglecting the foundation of your health, happiness and success in life by failing to give your feet the proper attention and care?

Statistics show that nine out of every ten people have some form of foot trouble, caused by disease, abuse and misuse—wrong methods of standing and walking, along with the wearing of ill-shaped and ill-fitted shoes and stockings. The nerves of the feet are connected with the nerves of the leg and body. Pains in various parts of the body have been traced to the feet as the cause, affecting the entire nervous system.

The foot being composed of many small bones, is very easily forced into an abnormal position, especially with the growing boy or girl, for the bones of a child's foot do not fully ossify until he has reached the age of from 14 to 18 years. This being the case, you can very readily understand how easy it is to ruin a foot for life by placing it into a shoe or stocking that does not fit properly. Many bunions, ingrown nails, crooked toes, weak and fallen arches, and many other troublesome conditions can be traced back to the time when a short narrow or pointed shoe was worn.

A survey of school children between the ages of eight and fourteen revealed that eighty per cent of the girls and sixty per cent of the boys were foot defective. Out of one hundred per cent of foot ailments, sixty five per cent are among women and thirty five per cent among men. Of one hundred per cent foot ailments of women, twenty five per cent are between the ages of eighteen and thirty, with seventy five per cent from thirty to sixty.

Modern civilization is productive of foot ills, but modern science has provided a method to forestall and correct foot troubles. In the medical world this is known as chiropractic and it means the scientific treatment and care of the feet in health or disease. Here you may learn how to take care of your feet in order to avoid trouble; or if you have any kind of an abnormality you can be either cured or relieved.

It is a proven fact that seventy five percent of the people are wearing ill-shaped and ill-fitted shoes, because they do not fully realize the condition their feet are in and cannot select the proper shape and size shoe. The shoe salesman does not know either; no doubt he does his best, providing he knows of your complaint. Then sometimes he is unable to convince the customer that he should have this or that kind of a shoe. A chiropractor, during his two years of study, learns of shoes and shoe fitting, and is therefore in a much better position to help you in selecting a shoe for your foot that will give you the maximum amount of comfort and service, considering the condition your feet are in. He is also able to advise your children as to the type of shoe they should wear in order to prevent foot ailments later in life.

The future generation will march forward on the feet of the children of today. Again I wish to say that your health, happiness and success in life depends greatly on the attention and care you give your feet.

COTTON PALACE BIRD SHOW TO BE ENLARGED

Poultry Department of Waco's Exposition Will Feature Mammoth Turkey Display.

Waco, Texas.—Visitors to the Texas Cotton Palace Exposition and Dairy Show this year, Nov. 1 to 10, will marvel at the expansion of the poultry department. From a small beginning in 1910, it has grown each year until it is now recognized as one of the largest and best annual exhibitions west of the Mississippi river. During the last two years, more birds were shown at the Cotton Palace than at 95 per cent of the poultry shows of the west, including the big state fairs of Iowa, Kansas, Colorado, Missouri and Nebraska.

Turkey Show This Year

This year one of the stellar features will be a big turkey show handled entirely by the Cotton Palace management. Walter Burton of Dallas, nationally famous turkey judge and superintendent of the poultry department of the Texas State fair, has been selected to hang the ribbons on the great Christmas birds. In addition to the regular prizes on turkeys, which are liberal, the Cotton Palace Association is offering $100 in cash specials. Of course, most of this amount will be offered on the Bronze turkey classes, these being the largest and most popular. However, cash specials are also offered in the White Holland, Bourbon Red, Slate and Narragansett turkey classes. The forthcoming premium list will advertise the fact that the turkeys will all be judged at a certain specified time, and all turkey exhibitors will be invited to be present and handle their own birds while they are being judged. This will give the owners an opportunity to learn something about the fine points of these majestic fowls, and at the same time avoid any possibility of an error being made, either in award or classification.

The Texas Cotton Palace association is the first fair association in the south to recognize breeders of pheasants by offering special premiums on these beautiful birds. The indications now are that the exhibit of pheasants, Golden, Silver, Reeves, Lady Amherst and other varieties, will be the largest in the history of the exposition.

This year there is an unusually large offering of specials in breeds which the majority of poultry shows have not hitherto recognized—Javas, Buff Wyandots, Buff and White Minorcas, White-crested Black Polish and many others.

Those who exhibit pens of fowls in the four great classes of poultry, the American, Asiatic, Mediterranean and English classes, will have an opportunity to win some handsome sweep-stake specials. Twenty dollars is offered for the best pen in each class, all breeds in the class competing.

Large Cash Prizes

In practically all of the popular breeds, $10 is offered on best display of 10 birds or more, and $5 on each best old and young pens. The Texas Cotton Palace offers the largest number of cash specials of any poultry show in the entire south. John K. Strecker of Baylor university, has for the past 18 years been acting in the capacity of superintendent of the show. This year, C. P. Van Winkle, publisher of Poultry News, will be associated with Mr. Burton in judging the various poultry classes. The poultry show will last during the entire time of the exposition—10 days.

This big announcement will be of interest to the people and the sale is one of the outstanding merchandising events of the year.

Those attending from Cameron were Mesdames R. H. Davis, Leland Green, W. B. Levy, H. N. Tate, W. F. Sharpe, Howard Baskin, J. W. Kemp, W. I. Clark, R. L. Williams, J. S. Bragg and Willard McCall.

Hilda Burk Hostess To Entres Nous Club

Miss Hilda Burke was hostess to the Entres Nous Club Tuesday night at her home, using a Halloween decorative scheme. Tallies were in yellow and black, and candy cups for the tables were pumpkin-shaped.

Miss Iva Wilson and Mrs. Durward Hause won table cuts. Following the games the hostess served a salad plate and iced tea. The Halloween idea was carried out here also, the plates and napkins being decorated with black cats, goblins and other suggestive motifs.

Miss Viola Berry of Salado was an out of town guest.

Mrs. Arthur Kruse Is Hostess At Bridge

Mrs. Arthur Kruse was hostess to members of the Tuesday Bridge Club this week in their first meeting of the season. In cognizance of the fact that this is Halloween month, Mrs. Kruse chose yellow for her favorite color in appointments and in the salad course and iced drink which she served following the games.

During a business session held after the games, Miss Clara Thomas was elected president of the club and Miss Nadine Bragg vice-president. Mrs. W. M. Ryan was the only guest other than club members.

TEMPLE JR. COLLEGE TO PLAY CAMERON

FOOTBALL GAME ON ATHLETIC
FIELD HERE WEDNESDAY
OCTOBER 23

The first big game of the year for Cameron fans will be played on the Yoe High School field next week. The Yoemen has not had so very much opposition during the past two games but it looks like they have taken on just a little more than they can handle in this team. At the same time you will see a good game, win or lose, and that is what the fans want.

The two last games played resulted in lopsided scores for the Yoemen and to-date we have not been able to tell just what they are going to do when they run up against some real team. Thorndale promises to give them about all they can do this Friday, but at that the Yoemen should come out with a touchdown or two ahead.

A Prosperous Country
Drivers and Walkers
Wry Industries Grow
Flying for Pasture

Uncle Sam continues to prosper, in spite of increasing expenses. In three months ending September 30 he collected more than one billion dollars, and $128,959,834 more than he collected in the same three months a year ago. It's a big, rich country, with one single city spending in a year as much as the United States used to spend before the war.

Bootleg whiskey, 'home brew' and automobile accidents are related. Drunken drivers kill many. Everybody knew that.

Now Doctor Norris, chief medical examiner of New York City, says that 'drunken walkers' cause accidents for which the automobile industry is blamed.

Doctor Norris urges that reckless walkers be fined and adds, 'Twenty-five per cent of adults hurt by automobiles are intoxicated.'

An observer of high finance says industry progresses rapidly 'because sons of very rich men play polo and golf, neglect business inherited from their fathers, and allow abler men to extend and develop the business.'

That is true in some cases. No Vanderbilt runs the New York Central railroad, no Ryan manages street car lines, no J. J. Hill descendant manages great railroads in the West. But it isn't true always.

For instance, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., not conspicuous on the golf course or polo field, runs successfully the biggest business in the world, turned over to him by his father, now past ninety.

And the American Tobacco company is run with an extraordinary success, to which its competitors will testify, by a very young man, George W. Hill who inherited the job from his father. Here and there young men inherit ability and ambition with great wealth but not often.

It is easy to succeed in spite of poverty. It is difficult to succeed in spite of wealth.

The Canadian government bought a herd of 3000 selected reindeer and will drive them from Kotzebue Sound in Arctic Alaska to the east side of the Mackenzie Delta in northwest Canada.

Driving great herds to new pasture lands is old. Ahead of Canada's reindeer an Alaska airways plane will fly, carrying officials of the Canadian government spying out the best pastures to which the reindeer may be driven. That is new.

Modern science is useful. Airplanes select pastures, prospect for gold, watch forest fires, carry medicine.

The X-ray is used in the purchase of mummies.

Professor Langmuir in the General Electric Research laboratory shows a life size X-ray of a mummy, taken through all its wrappings. The outer edges of the vertebrae, show indications of arthritis in those ancient days.

The Field Museum in Chicago will purchase no mummy until its genuineness has been demonstrated by X-rays showing the bony structure of the old Egyptian inside.

X-rays and other scientific processes are used in selecting merchandise of many kinds.

Thinking about evil, dreading it, is worse than evil. One man killed himself because he feared a duel arranged for next day. Another blew his brains out rather than walk to safety on a tree trunk stretched over a deep chasm.

Herman Linderman, New York gangster, strangled himself with his belt in prison. He had 'squealed' on his associates, had been stabbed once in prison and feared what would happen when he reached the penitentiary again.

He put $8.50 in the pocket of a criminal asleep in his cell with a note asking that it be divided with a friend. He wrote to that friend, 'Have a good feast on me, on my way to Hell.' Crime does not pay.

Germany mourns the loss of Stresemann, great and patriotic leader, who actually worked himself to death for Germany. Before he died he had the satisfaction of negotiating the evacuation of the Rhineland, thus restoring to Germany her territorial integrity.

The governor of North Carolina very intelligently thinks that in North Carolina wages should be made higher, hours shorter, in the textile industry.

He does not agree with the theory that human beings in the South should be treated like cattle in order to attract northern capital.

WADE IS DENIED BOND
AFTER HEARING HERE

CHARGED WITH MURDER OF
WIFE CAMERON MAN RECOM-
MENDED AFTER HEARING

Eugene Wade, charged with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Oralee Wade in Cameron on the afternoon of September 30, 1929 was denied bond in the court of Justice J. M. Ralston here Wednesday afternoon after a hearing which was held on application of the defendant, the purpose of which was application for a bond.

At the conclusion of the hearing District Attorney Jack Lewis presented argument to show the defendant was not entitled to bond under the terms of the charge and testimony given. Justice Ralston denied the bond and Wade was given over to the keeping of Sheriff Blaylock and returned to the county jail to wait action of the grand jury which will meet in November. The question of an indictment will come up at the session of the grand jury.

Ten witnesses testified at the trial. Wade sat motionless and apparently undisturbed. He was taken to the county jail last week from the Cameron hospital where he was being treated for his wounds. After the shooting of Mrs. Wade he attempted to take his own life, it is said, and slashed his throat with a razor. In a low, well modulated voice he questioned some of the witnesses. He has no attorneys and conducted his own case before the court.

Dorris Wade, 14 year old daughter of the defendant, was the only witness to the shooting and her testimony was introduced by the state. She testified that on Sunday night before the fatal shooting on Monday that her father went to the bed room of her mother and drew a pistol. Wade questioned the daughter stating that he had no pistol and was clad in his night clothes. Dorris said in her testimony that Wade took the gun from his bosom and pointed it at her mother. The disturbance that night was alarming to the family she said. The next day she took her father to the Round Balcony and sometime during the day her mother went to the home of her brother, Atwood Devers in Cameron. On the afternoon of September 30, about two o'clock Wade came to the home of Atwood Devers and asked for Mrs. Wade. Dorris met him at the door and said 'Daddy you must not shoot mama.' According to her testimony she followed him into the kitchen where Mrs. Wade was changing her clothes. She said Wade drew a pistol and pointed it at Mrs. Wade who came to him and they struggled with the gun. Dorris tried to interfere. The gun was discharged and Mrs. Wade was shot in the right thigh, severing an artery. Dorris testified that she was powder burned by the shot. Mrs. Wade ran from the home to the house of a neighbor and there fell. She was later taken to the hospital and died from loss of blood.

Mrs. Devers, mother of Mrs. Wade testified that she stayed at the Wade home on Sunday night. She was at the home of her son on the afternoon of the shooting but was in another room. After the shooting she testified she seized a stick and beat Wade. All of the family except Wade left the home and after they left Wade attempted to take his life.

Dr. M. C. Sapp testified as to the nature of the wounds that caused Mrs. Wade's death.

CITIZENS BANK IN FORMAL OPENING
ON THURSDAY NIGHT, OCT. 24; MUSIC AND PROGRAM ARRANGED BY OFFICERS

Cameron's two million dollar bank—The Citizens National Bank, will hold a reception to the public on Thursday night, October 24, 1929 from 7 to 9:30 at which time the people are invited to attend and to see the new building.

Oxshier Smith, president and W. O. Newton, vice-president, are arranging a program of entertainment with the co-operation of the employees of the bank and the directors.

Music will be furnished by Guy Draper's orchestra. This orchestra is from Waco and well known over Texas. In addition to this part of the program refreshments will be served.

This will be the first opportunity the people have had to go behind the scenes in a big bank. Officers will be there to conduct the people through the various departments, showing the workings of a bank, the improved facilities and the methods by which their business is handled.

Every detail of the workings of this bank will be shown to the people and this feature alone will be worthwhile.

The electrical burglar alarm system said to be the finest anywhere in the United States, will be demonstrated to the public.

The officers and directors and employees of the bank are anxious for the people to attend this reception which will mark the formal opening of the new building, one of the best banking rooms in Texas.

The new building has been occupied by the bank and plans have been under way for more than two weeks for the reception to be held on next Thursday night.

Elsewhere in this edition will be found a highly interesting story describing the beauty and detail of this structure. This article was prepared by the architects and will be of interest to the people.

DAIRY MEETING WILL ENLIST THE FARMERS

COMMERCIAL CLUB TO HOLD
MEETING MONDAY NIGHT
OCTOBER 21

Increasing interest in dairying as a result of the establishment here of the plant of the American Milk Products Company is rapidly bringing about a balanced income for the farms.

Interest has increased with the sale of milk here through the cooling plant of the Borden Company of Waco and it is a source of great satisfaction to those who have stood by and encouraged the farmers.

The Commercial Club on last Monday night voted to give over the meeting on Monday night, October 21 to the discussion of dairying. Speakers will be present and the farmers are urged to attend.

P. C. Colgin, manager of the plant has taken an active interest in the work here as field man and believes the dairy business has come to stay in the county. 'The interest is fine said Mr. Colgin, 'and we expect to have a great showing in a few months toward a balanced income for the farm.'

J. C. Tucker said: 'It is really gratifying to note the interest that is being taken in the matter of selling milk here. We find that many are breaking away from their efforts at a one crop system and are interested in buying cows. We hope to be able to place a large number of better cows in this territory shortly.'

The meeting is important and the farmers who are interested are urged to attend this meeting.

The trip they are making involves about 72,000 miles and to date they have made about 42,000 miles. Every ex-service man will be asked to register that day, and give any other information concerning other ex-service men of Milam county that they can. It is hoped that the Post will be able to build up valuable information concerning ex-service men in Milam county in this way.

COMMERCIAL CLUB IN INTERESTING MEETING

REPORT ON HIGHWAY MEET
MADE AND DAIRY MEETING
ANNOUNCED FOR MONDAY

President Jackson called the meeting to order at 7:45 p. m.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Roll call showed the following officers, directors and committee chairmen present: F. E. Jackson, J. D. Dobbins, W. M. Cobb, Geo. Gott, J. C. Tucker, W. R. Hoover, F. S. Lesovsky, Giles L. Avriett, F. J. Beckerman, George T. Graves, Ben F. Reichert, Rev. E. S. Hutcherson, M. G. Manning, P. C. Colgin, W. J. Warren, W. H. Shipp and B. T. Harris.

Mr. Cobb reported the trip to Victoria in interest of the proposed new highway and on motion duly made and carried the secretary was instructed to write H. C. Meyer of Rockdale, newly elected president of the North and South highway association, felicitating upon his election and promising him the hearty support of the Cameron Commercial Club.

P. C. C. Colgin announced that the Calvert Chamber of Commerce had recently been active in pledging acreage in tomatoes and peanuts in the Branchville neighborhood. This report was referred to the agricultural committee for its co-operation and the secretary was authorized to write Secretary Heath and offer the club's support in this campaign.

Messrs. Tucker and Graves spoke of the intense interest shown by Milam county farmers in the dairy development campaign and offered to fill the court room with farmers any night when dairy development will be stressed. After more discussion, next Monday night was set for a special dairy meeting and the Borden organization will be extended a special invitation to be present and sponsor a special program for the occasion.

Mr. Shipp reported that the P. C. Pennington Company of Sulphur Springs had taken over the Peter Produce plant and would continue to buy and dress turkeys and buy and ship poultry and pecans, as usual. He proposed the firm for membership in the club. The names of W. E. Gaither, P. C. McGregor, Edwin York and R. G. Graben were proposed by the Secretary. All were elected.

Mr. Hoover suggested that some of our leading business men were unwittingly discrediting Cameron by carrying on their cars, spare-tire covers with ads of Waco and Temple firms on them instead of Cameron firms. He thought that the mere mention of the fact would be sufficient to get them to take them off and substitute those from local firms.

Attention to the fact that the election of Mr. Cobb as Secretary left a vacancy on the board of directors. Mr. B. T. Harris was nominated and elected to this place.

Mr. Lesovsky moved that President Jackson be given the full support of the club in enforcing the rule which automatically removes directors and committee chairmen from office when they are absent for three consecutive meetings without satisfactory excuse.

Ford Production In September Passes Previous Records

The Ford Motor Company today issued the following statement:

'Production of passenger cars and commercial cars during September, 1929, totalled 161,305 units, a heavy increase over production during the same months of the preceding year.

An increased production schedule has been set for October, calling for an output of 175,000 Model A cars and Model AA trucks. The program for October anticipates a gain of 47,000 units over the production of October 1928 when 127,225 units were produced.

Neff Named Chairman Railroad Commission

Austin, Texas, Oct. 14—Pat M. Neff of Waco, former governor, today was named chairman of the state railroad commission to succeed Clarence E. Gilmore, who died Thursday.

Neff is a former member of the U. S. board of railroad mediation. He was appointed by President Coolidge.

He was governor for two terms, from January 1921 to January 1925. While the state's chief executive he appointed Dan Moody, now governor, as district attorney.

Governor Moody, who announced the appointment said Neff would assume his new duties as soon as practicable.

President Coolidge selected Neff for a second term on the mediation board

but the senate had not confirmed the appointment when the Coolidge administration ended and former Governor O. B. Colquitt was chosen for the place by President Hoover.

Neff had been mentioned as a likely candidate for a third term as governor, especially if former United States Senator Earle B. Mayfield should enter the race. Mayfield bitterly opposed Neff's reappointment to the federal mediation body.

By Roy Baskin

The worst vegetable of which I know is spinach. By many people, especially by myself, it is associated with grass and weeds. One of the many reasons that makes me hate spinach is that I have to eat it. This makes it taste a great deal worse. To me there is no reason why spinach should be eaten or why it helps you. It is generally said by mothers that spinach is beneficial to your health. As far as I am concerned, though spinach should be listed as a medicine and not as a vegetable. The doctor who prescribes this 'awful-tasting medicine' for me is mother.

WHAT I THINK ABOUT CORN
By Earnest Sharpe

Corn reminds me so much of musical instruments. Some people make such a musical sound when eating it off the cob. Sometimes it is like a bass horn. It is tough and you fuss and cause trouble by disturbing everyone. Then too, often tender and sweet is it. College students like especially hot 'hot' music served from the best of artists at this trade. Last comes the sad part; you want more but it is gone—gone to come back some other day. Did corn ever remind you of all these?

WHAT I THINK ABOUT ONIONS
By Giles Avriett

Onions are a very spicy seasoning. Equally good are they for meat salads and sauces, if used right. Onions are a very 'delicate vegetable' to tinker with, especially according to the nose. There are many ways to fix onions but the only way I like them is raw, but this is the worst way to eat them.

Are there many kinds of onions? Oh, yes. There are more than a few. They range from tiny multiplying onions that are best eaten raw to big, brown onions that are very strong. The best kinds of onions for all-round purposes are the White Bermudas.

Best grown are onions in a light sandy soil with very little water. If there is too much water they will rot. Onions are nearly indispensable if used right, but if not they are offensive.

The fall political campaign at the University of Texas came to a climax Tuesday with the election of officers to the student's assembly. W. A. Morrison of Cameron was a candidate from the school of Education.

CHIROPODIST TELLS OF DEFECTS IN FEET

Editor's Note—The following article was submitted to this paper by Dr. J. R. Harris of Waco, president of the Chiropody Society of Texas. One purpose of the society is to enlighten and direct public opinion concerning all matters pertaining to chiropody and chiropodists and in view of this fact Dr. Harris is writing a series of articles for The Herald. Next week he will discuss "Walking and the Care of the Feet."

Your first thought in building a home is to give it a firm and solid foundation, because you realize that upon this alone can it withstand the stress and strain of inevitable evils. If the foundation becomes weak you immediately repair it.

The feet are the foundation of health. Are you deliberately neglecting the foundation of your health, happiness and success in life by failing to give your feet the proper attention and care?

Statistics show that nine out of every ten people have some form of foot trouble, caused by disease, abuse and misuse—wrong methods of standing and walking, along with the wearing of ill-shaped and ill-fitted shoes and stockings. The nerves of the feet are connected with the nerves of the leg and body. Pains in various parts of the body have been traced to the feet as the cause, affecting the entire nervous system.

The foot being composed of many small bones, is very easily forced into an abnormal position, especially with the growing boy or girl, for the bones of a child's foot do not fully ossify until he has reached the age of from 14 to 18 years. This being the case, you can very readily understand how easy it is to ruin a foot for life by placing it into a shoe or stocking that does not fit properly. Many bunions, ingrown nails, crooked toes, weak and fallen arches, and many other troublesome conditions can be traced back to the time when a short narrow or pointed shoe was worn.

A survey of school children between the ages of eight and fourteen revealed that eighty per cent of the girls and sixty per cent of the boys were foot defective. Out of one hundred per cent of foot ailments, sixty five per cent are among women and thirty five percent among men. Of one hundred per cent foot ailments of women, twenty five per cent are between the ages of eighteen and thirty, with seventy five per cent from thirty to sixty.

Modern civilization is productive of foot ills, but modern science has provided a method to forestall and correct foot troubles. In the medical world this is known as chiropody and it means the scientific treatment and care of the feet in health or disease. Here you may learn how to take care of your feet in order to avoid trouble; or if you have any kind of an abnormality you can be either cured or relieved.

It is a proven fact that seventy five percent of the people are wearing ill-shaped and ill-fitted shoes, because they do not fully realize the condition their feet are in and cannot select the proper shape and size shoe. The shoe salesman does not know either; no doubt he does his best, providing he knows of your complaint. Then sometimes he is unable to convince the customer that he should have this or that kind of a shoe. A chiropodist, during his two years of study, learns of shoes and shoe fitting, and is therefore in a much better position to help you in selecting a shoe for your foot that will give you the maximum amount of comfort and service, considering the condition your feet are in. He is also able to advise your children as to the type of shoe they should wear in order to prevent foot ailments later in life.

The future generation will march forward on the feet of the children of today. Again I wish to say that your health, happiness and success in life depends greatly on the attention and care you give your feet.

COTTON PALACE BIRD SHOW TO BE ENLARGED

Poultry Department of Waco's Exposition Will Feature Mammoth Turkey Display.

Waco, Texas.—Visitors to the Texas Cotton Palace Exposition and Dairy Show this year, Nov. 1 to 10, will marvel at the expansion of the poultry department. From a small beginning in 1910, it has grown each year until it is now recognized as one of the largest and best annual exhibitions west of the Mississippi river. During the last two years, more birds were shown at the Cotton Palace than at 95 percent of the poultry shows of the west, including the big state fairs of Iowa, Kansas, Colorado, Missouri and Nebraska.

Turkey Show This Year

This year one of the stellar features will be a big turkey show, handled entirely by the Cotton Palace management. Walter Burton of Dallas, nationally famous turkey judge and superintendent of the poultry department of the Texas State fair, has been selected to hang the ribbons on the great Christmas birds. In addition to the regular prizes on turkeys, which are liberal, the Cotton Palace Association is offering $100 in cash specials. Of course, most of this amount will be offered on the Bronze turkey classes, these being the largest and most popular. However, cash specials are also offered in the White Holland, Bourbon Red, Slate and Narragansett turkey classes. The forthcoming premium list will advertise the fact that the turkeys will all be judged at a certain specified time, and all turkey exhibitors will be invited to be present and handle their own birds while they are being judged. This will give the owners an opportunity to learn something about the fine points of these majestic fowls, and at the same time avoid any possibility of an error being made, either in award or classification.

The Texas Cotton Palace association is the first fair association in the south to recognize breeders of pheasants by offering special premiums on these beautiful birds. The indications now are that the exhibit of pheasants, Golden, Silver, Reeves, Lady Amherst and other varieties, will be the largest in the history of the exposition.

This year there is an unusually large offering of specials in breeds which the majority of poultry shows have not hitherto recognized—Javas, Buff Wyandots, Buff and White Minorcas, White-crested Black Polish and many others.

Those who exhibit pens of fowls in the four great classes of poultry, the American, Asiatic, Mediterranean and English classes, will have an opportunity to win some handsome sweepstake specials. Twenty dollars is offered for the best pen in each class, all breeds in the class competing.

Large Cash Prizes

In practically all of the popular breeds, $10 is offered on best display of 10 birds or more, and $5 on each best old and young pens. The Texas Cotton Palace offers the largest number of cash specials of any poultry show in the entire south. John K. Strecker of Baylor university has for the past 18 years been acting in the capacity of superintendent of the show. This year, C. P. Van Winkle, publisher of Poultry News, will be associated with Mr. Burton in judging the various poultry classes. The poultry show will last during the entire time of the exposition—10 days.

Fall Unloading Sale At J. D. Dobbins Store

An unusual merchandising event is the Fall Unloading Sale at J. D. Dobbins dry goods store announced this week in a double page advertisement with circulars mailed to the trade.

In this announcement Mr. Dobbins is quoting prices that smack of real bargains on highly seasonable merchandise. The big store is full of new fall goods in every department and to move these goods he is quoting very low prices.

"I will not carry these goods over," said Mr. Dobbins, "and am announcing what I believe is the greatest fall unloading sale in the history of my business in Cameron. All of these goods are new season merchandise and we are offering them at figures the people cannot afford to overlook."

This big announcement will be of interest to the people and the sale is one of the outstanding merchandising events of the year.

Miss Iva Wilson and Mrs. Durward Hause won table cuts. Following the games the hostess served a salad plate and iced tea. The Halloween idea was carried out here also, the plates and napkins being decorated with black cats, goblins and other suggestive motifs.

Miss Viola Berry of Salado was an out of town guest.

Mrs. Arthur Kruse Is Hostess At Bridge

Mrs. Arthur Kruse was hostess to members of the Tuesday Bridge Club this week in their first meeting of the season. In cognizance of the fact that this is Halloween month, Mrs. Kruse chose yellow for her favorite color in appointments and in the salad course and iced drink which she served following the games.

During a business session held after the games, Miss Clara Thomas was elected president of the club and Miss Nadine Bragg vice-president. Mrs. W. M. Ryan was the only guest other than club members.

TEMPLE JR. COLLEGE TO PLAY CAMERON

FOOTBALL GAME ON ATHLETIC
FIELD HERE WEDNESDAY
OCTOBER 23

The first big game of the year for Cameron fans will be played on the Yoe High School field next week. The Yoemen has not had so very much opposition during the past two games but it looks like they have taken on just a little more than they can handle in this team. At the same time you will see a good game, win or lose, and that is what the fans want.

The two last games played resulted in lop-sided scores for the Yoemen and to-date we have not been able to tell just what they are going to do when they run up against some real team. Thorndale promises to give them about all they can do this Friday, but at that the Yoemen should come out with a touchdown or two ahead.
